SUMMARY OF THIS NOTICE

Statement of Settlement Class Recovery

Pursuant to the Settlement described herein, an $8.05 million settlement fund has been established. Based on Lead Plaintiffs' estimate of the number of allegedly damaged shares eligible to recover under the Settlement, the average distribution per common share under the Plan of Allocation is approximately $0.05, before deduction of any taxes on the income earned on the Settlement Amount, notice and administration costs, and the attorneys' fees and expenses as determined by the Court. Settlement Class Members should note, however, that these are only estimates. A Settlement Class Member's actual recovery will be a proportion of the Net Settlement Fund determined by that claimant's claims as compared to the total claims of all

Settlement Class Members who submit acceptable Proofs of Claim. An individual Settlement Class Member may receive more or less than these estimated average amounts. See Plan of Allocation set forth and discussed at pages 13 through 18 below for more information on the calculation of your claim.

Statement of Potential Outcome of Case

The Settling Parties disagree on both liability and damages and do not agree on the amount of damages that would be recoverable if the Settlement Class prevailed on each or any claim alleged. Defendants deny that they are liable to the Settlement Class, deny that the Settlement Class has suffered any damages, and deny any wrongdoing or liability whatsoever. The issues on which the parties disagree are many, but include: (1) whether Defendants engaged in conduct that would give rise to any liability to the Settlement Class under the federal securities laws; (2) whether Defendants have valid defenses to any such claims of liability; (3) the appropriate economic model for determining the amount by which the price of Aurora common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange was allegedly artificially inflated (if at all) during the relevant period; (4) the amount, if any, by which the price of Aurora common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange was allegedly artificially inflated (if at all) during the relevant period; (5) the effect of various market forces on the price of Aurora common stock at various times during the relevant period; (6) the extent to which external factors influenced the price of Aurora common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange at various times during the relevant period; (7) the extent to which the matters that Lead Plaintiffs alleged were materially false or misleading influenced (if at all) the price of Aurora common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange at various times during the relevant period; and (8) the extent to which the various allegedly adverse material facts that Lead Plaintiffs alleged were omitted influenced (if at all) the price of Aurora common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange at various times during the relevant period.

Statement of Attorneys' Fees and Expenses Sought

Since the Litigation's inception, Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel have expended considerable time and effort in the prosecution of this Litigation on a wholly contingent basis and have advanced the expenses of the Litigation in the expectation that if they were successful in obtaining a recovery for the Settlement Class, they would be paid from such recovery. Lead Counsel will apply to the Court on behalf of all Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel for an award of attorneys' fees not to exceed 25% of the Settlement Amount, plus expenses not to exceed $150,000, plus interest earned on both amounts at the same rate as earned by the Settlement Fund. In addition, one or more of the Lead Plaintiffs may seek reimbursement of their time and expenses in connection with their representation of the Settlement Class. If the amounts requested are approved by the Court, the average cost per Aurora common share will be approximately $0.01.

Please Do Not Call the Court or Defendants with Questions About the Settlement.

Reasons for the Settlement

Lead Plaintiffs' principal reason for entering into the Settlement is the benefit to the Settlement Class now, without further risk or the delays inherent in continued litigation. The cash benefit under the Settlement must be considered against the significant risk that a smaller recovery – or, indeed, no recovery at all – might be achieved after contested motions, trial, and likely appeals, a process that could last several years into the future. For the Defendants, who have denied and continue to deny all allegations of liability, fault, or wrongdoing whatsoever, the principal reason for entering into the Settlement is to eliminate the uncertainty, risk, costs, and burdens inherent in any litigation, especially in complex cases such as this Litigation. Defendants have concluded that further conduct of this Litigation could be protracted and distracting.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. What is the purpose of this Notice?

This Notice was prepared and is being made available to you pursuant to an Order of a U.S. District Court because you or someone in your family or an investment account for which you serve as custodian may have purchased Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange during the period between October 23, 2018 and February 28, 2020, inclusive (the “Class Period”).²

This Notice explains the class action lawsuit, the Settlement, Settlement Class Members' legal rights in connection with the Settlement, what benefits are available, who is eligible for them, and how to get them.

The Court in charge of the Litigation is the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, and the case is known as In re Aurora Cannabis Inc. Securities Litigation, No. 2:19-cv-20588-BRM-JBC. The case has been assigned to the Honorable James B. Clark, III. The individuals representing the Settlement Class are the “Lead Plaintiffs,” and the individuals and entity they sued and who have now settled are called the Defendants.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The Litigation is currently pending before the Honorable James B. Clark, III in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey. The initial complaint in the Litigation was filed on November 21, 2019 before Judge John M. Vazquez. On July 23, 2020, the Court appointed Lead Plaintiffs and Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP and Hagens Berman Sobol Shapiro LLP as Lead Counsel.³

On September 21, 2020, Lead Plaintiffs filed their Amended Complaint and Demand for July Trial alleging violations of §§10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”). The Amended Complaint alleged that Defendants failed to disclose that they had materially misrepresented the Company’s business and prospects. Defendants and former defendants Stephen Dobler, Glen Ibbott, Cameron Battley, Michael Singer, and Jason Dyck (the “Former Defendants”) moved to dismiss the Amended Complaint, which was granted without prejudice on July 6, 2021. On September 7, 2021, Lead Plaintiffs filed their Second Amended Complaint and Demand for Jury Trial (the “SAC”), which added allegations about the Company’s transaction with Radient Technologies Inc. On December 6, 2021, Defendants and the Former Defendants moved to dismiss the SAC, and on September 23, 2022, the Court granted the motion to dismiss without prejudice.

² This Litigation is separate and distinct from the case entitled Landry v. Aurora Cannabis Inc., et al., filed in the Court of King's Bench of Alberta, Canada, on behalf of purchasers of Aurora securities on the Toronto Stock Exchange on or after September 11, 2019, and who held some or all of those shares until after the close of trading on November 14, 2019, November 18, 2019, November 29, 2019, or December 21, 2019.

On November 7, 2022, Lead Plaintiffs filed the operative Third Amended Complaint and Demand for Jury Trial (the “Complaint”). On January 6, 2023, Defendants moved to dismiss the Complaint. On August 24, 2023, the Court issued an opinion and entered an order granting in part and denying in part the motion to dismiss. On September 8, 2023, Lead Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Partial Reconsideration and/or Clarification of the Court’s August 24, 2023 Opinion. Defendants opposed Lead Plaintiffs’ motion on September 26, 2023. Defendants answered the Complaint on September 22, 2023.

On September 14, 2023, the Litigation was reassigned to Judge Martinotti. Magistrate Judge Clark held a Rule 16 scheduling conference on October 26, 2023, and on that date, Judge Clark entered the Parties’ Pretrial Scheduling Order. The Court held a conference with the Parties on November 16, 2023, and following that conference Lead Counsel informed the Court of their decision to withdraw the motion for reconsideration and move to amend the Complaint. On January 22, 2024, Lead Plaintiffs filed their motion to amend the Complaint. Defendants opposed the motion to amend the Complaint. The motion was pending at the time this agreement was reached.

During the course of discovery, the parties exchanged written discovery requests, Lead Plaintiffs served third party discovery, the parties negotiated a protective order which was “So Ordered” by the Court, and they submitted a proposed electronic discovery agreement, which was “So Ordered” by the Court.

On March 4, 2024, Lead Plaintiffs and Defendants participated in a voluntary confidential mediation session with Robert A. Meyer, Esq. of JAMS. The mediation session was preceded by submission of mediation statements by the Settling Parties. The Settling Parties engaged in good-faith negotiations, and after a full day of mediation, accepted a mediator’s proposal to settle the Litigation in exchange for a cash payment of $8.05 million for the benefit of the Settlement Class, subject to the negotiation of the terms of a Stipulation of Settlement and approval by the Court. The Stipulation (together with the Exhibits thereto) reflects the final and binding agreement among the Settling Parties.

3. Why is there a settlement?

The Court has not decided in favor of Defendants or of the Lead Plaintiffs. Instead, both sides agreed to the Settlement to avoid the distraction, costs, and risks of further litigation, and Lead Plaintiffs agreed to the Settlement in order to ensure that Settlement Class Members will receive compensation.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT

4. How do I know if I am a Member of the Settlement Class?

The Court directed that everyone who fits this description is a Settlement Class Member: all Persons who purchased Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange between October 23, 2018 and February 28, 2020, inclusive. Excluded from the Settlement Class are:

Please Note: Receipt of this Notice does not mean that you are a Settlement Class Member or that you will be entitled to receive a payment from the Settlement. If you are a Settlement Class Member and you wish to be eligible to participate in the distribution of the proceeds from the Settlement, you are required to submit a Proof of Claim which is available on the website and the required supporting documentation as set forth therein postmarked or submitted online on or before February 27, 2025.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS – WHAT YOU GET

6. What does the Settlement provide?

The Settlement provides that, in exchange for the release of the Released Claims (defined below) and dismissal of the Litigation, Defendants have agreed to pay or cause to be paid $8.05 million in cash to be distributed after taxes, tax expenses, notice and claims administration expenses, and approved fees and expenses, pro rata, to Settlement Class Members who send in a valid Proof of Claim pursuant to the Court-approved Plan of Allocation. The Plan of Allocation is described in more detail at the end of this Notice.

7. How much will my payment be?

Your share of the Net Settlement Fund will depend on several things, including the total dollar amount of claims represented by the valid Proofs of Claim that Settlement Class Members send in, compared to the dollar amount of your claim, all as calculated under the Plan of Allocation discussed below.

HOW YOU GET A PAYMENT – SUBMITTING A PROOF OF CLAIM

8. How can I get a payment?

To be eligible to receive a payment from the Settlement, you must submit a Proof of Claim. A Proof of Claim may be downloaded at www.AuroraCannabisSecuritiesLitigation.com. Read the instructions carefully, fill out the Proof of Claim, include all the documents the form asks for, sign it, and mail (to Aurora Cannabis Securities Litigation, c/o JND Legal Administration, Claims Administrator, P.O. Box 91320, Seattle, WA 98111) or submit it online at www.AuroraCannabisSecuritiesLitigation.com so that it is postmarked or received no later than February 27, 2025.

9. When would I get my payment?

The Court will hold a Settlement Hearing on January 28, 2025, at 2:00 p.m., to decide whether to approve the Settlement. If the Court approves the Settlement, there might be appeals. It is always uncertain whether appeals can be resolved, and if so, how long it would take to resolve them. It also takes time for all the Proofs of Claim to be processed. Please be patient.

10. What am I giving up to get a payment or to stay in the Settlement Class?

Unless you timely and validly exclude yourself in connection with this Settlement, you are in the Settlement Class, and that means you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendants or the Released Defendant Parties about the Released Claims (as defined below) in this case. It also means that all of the Court's orders will apply to you and legally bind you. If you remain a Settlement Class Member, and if the Settlement is approved, you will give up all "Released Claims" (as defined below), including "Unknown Claims" (as defined below), against the "Defendants' Released Persons" (as defined below):

- "Released Claims" means any and all claims, rights, and causes of action of every nature and description, including, duties, obligations, demands, losses, actions, debts, sums of money, suits, contracts, agreements, judgments, matters, issues, promises, damages, and liabilities, whether known or unknown, contingent or non-contingent, suspected or unsuspected, discoverable or undiscoverable, concealed or hidden, liquidated or unliquidated, accrued or unaccrued, at law or in equity, whether class or individual in nature, whether arising under federal or state statutory or common law or any other law, rule or regulation, whether foreign or domestic, that have been asserted, could have been asserted, or could be asserted in the future, in any forum, whether foreign or domestic, against any or all of Defendants' Released Persons that arise out of or are based upon or relate in any way to: (i) the Litigation, including any claims, causes of action, allegations, acts, transactions, facts, events, matters, occurrences, regulatory filings, statements, representations, disclosures, or omissions that were or could have been set forth, alleged, or referenced in the Litigation; and (ii) the purchase of Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange at any time during the Class Period. "Released Claims" does not include claims to enforce the Settlement or any derivative or ERISA claims. Nor does it include the claims of any Person who submits a request for exclusion in connection with this Settlement that is accepted by the Court. "Released Claims" includes "Unknown Claims" as defined below. "Released Claims" does not include claims which are alleged in Landry v. Aurora Cannabis Inc., et al., pending in the Court of King's Bench of Alberta, Canada ("Canadian Action") to the extent that such claims are based upon the purchase of Aurora stock on an exchange or market other than the New York Stock Exchange. For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent a class member or putative class member in the Canadian Action purchased Aurora stock on the New York Stock Exchange and another exchange or market, such claims are released to the extent they are based upon the purchase of Aurora stock on the New York Stock Exchange.
- "Released Defendants' Claims" means any and all claims and causes of action of every nature and description whatsoever, including both known claims and Unknown Claims, against Plaintiffs, Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel, or any Settlement Class Member that arise out of or relate in any way to the institution, prosecution, or settlement of the claims against Defendants or the Former Defendants in the Litigation, except for claims relating to the enforcement of the Settlement.

- “Released Defendant Party” or “Released Defendant Parties” or “Defendants’ Released Persons” mean any or all of Defendants and the Former Defendants and/or any or all of their related parties, including, without limitation, any and all of their current or former parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors, divisions, funds, joint ventures, and general or limited partnerships, and each of their respective current or former officers, directors, trustees, partners, members, contractors, auditors, principals, agents, managing agents, employees, attorneys, accountants, investment bankers, commercial bankers, financial or investment advisors, consultants, advisors, underwriters, insurers in their capacities as such, as well as each of the Defendants’ and Former Defendants’ immediate family members, heirs, executors, personal or legal representatives, estates, beneficiaries, predecessors, successors, legatees, devisees, administrators, spouses, receivers and trustees, settlors, auditors, accountants, and assigns, as well as any trust of which any of the Defendants or Former Defendants is the settlor or which is for the benefit of any of the Defendants or Former Defendants and/or member(s) of his family, and any person, firm, trust, corporation, officer, director, or other individual or entity in which any of the Defendants or Former Defendants has a controlling interest or which is related to or affiliated with any of the Defendants or Former Defendants.
- “Unknown Claims” means (a) any and all Released Claims which any of the Releasing Plaintiff Parties do not know or suspect to exist in his, her, or its favor at the time of the release of the Released Defendant Parties, which, if known by him, her, or it, might have affected his, her, or its settlement with and release of the Released Defendant Parties, or might have affected his, her, or its decision(s) with respect to the Settlement, including, but not limited to, whether or not to object to this Settlement or seek exclusion from the Settlement Class; and (b) any and all Released Defendants’ Claims that any of the Released Defendant Parties do not know or suspect to exist in his, her, or its favor at the time of the release of Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class, and Lead Plaintiffs’ Counsel, which, if known by him, her, it, or them might have affected his, her, its, or their settlement and release of Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class, and Lead Plaintiffs’ Counsel. With respect to (a) any and all Released Claims against the Released Defendant Parties, and (b) any and all Released Defendants’ Claims against Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class, and Lead Plaintiffs’ Counsel, the Settling Parties stipulate and agree that, upon the Effective Date, the Settling Parties shall expressly waive, and each Releasing Plaintiff Party and Released Defendant Party shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have expressly waived, the provisions, rights, and benefits of California Civil Code §1542, which provides:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him or her, would have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor or released party.

The Settling Parties shall expressly waive, and each Releasing Plaintiff Party and Released Defendant Party shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have, expressly waived any and all provisions, rights, and benefits conferred by any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law, which is similar, comparable, or equivalent to California Civil Code §1542. The Releasing Plaintiff Parties and Released Defendant Parties acknowledge that they may hereafter discover facts, legal theories, or authorities in addition to or different from those which he, she, it, or their counsel now knows or believes to be true with respect to the subject matter of the Released Claims or Released Defendants' Claims, but (a) the Releasing Plaintiff Parties shall expressly fully, finally, and forever waive, compromise, settle, discharge, extinguish, and release, and each Releasing Plaintiff Party shall be deemed to have waived, compromised, settled, discharged, extinguished, and released, and upon the Effective Date, and by operation of the Judgment shall have waived, compromised, settled, discharged, extinguished, and released, fully, finally, and forever, any and all Released Claims against the Released Defendant Parties, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent, accrued or unaccrued, whether or not concealed or hidden, which now exist, or heretofore have existed, or may hereafter exist, upon any theory of law or equity now existing or coming into existence in the future, including, but not limited to, conduct which is negligent, intentional, with or without malice, or a breach of any duty, law, or rule, without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of such different or additional facts, legal theories, or authorities, and (b) the Released Defendant Parties shall expressly fully, finally, and forever waive, compromise, settle, discharge, extinguish, and release, and each Released Defendant Party shall be deemed to have waived, compromised, settled, discharged, extinguished, and released, and upon the Effective Date, and by operation of the Judgment shall have waived, compromised, settled, discharged, extinguished, and released, fully, finally, and forever, any and all Released Defendants' Claims against Lead Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class, and Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent, whether or not concealed or hidden, which now exist, or heretofore have existed, upon any theory of law or equity now existing or coming into existence in the future, including, but not limited to, conduct which is negligent, intentional, with or without malice, or a breach of any duty, law or rule, without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of such different or additional facts, legal theories, or authorities. The Settling Parties acknowledge, and the Releasing Plaintiff Parties and Released Defendant Parties shall be deemed by operation of the Judgment to have acknowledged, that the foregoing waiver was separately bargained for and is an essential element of the Settlement of which this release is a part.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT CLASS

If you do not want to participate in this Settlement, and you want to keep the right to potentially sue the Defendants and the other Defendants' Released Persons, on your own, about the claims being released by the Settlement, then you must take steps to remove yourself from the Settlement. This is called excluding yourself – or is sometimes referred to as “opting out.” If you are requesting exclusion because you want to bring your own lawsuit based on the matters alleged in this Litigation, you may want to consult an attorney and discuss whether any individual claim that you may wish to pursue would be time-barred by the applicable statutes of limitation or repose. Also, the Settling Parties have agreed that Defendants may terminate the Settlement and render it null and void in the event that Persons who would otherwise be Members of the Settlement Class who collectively purchased a certain number of shares of Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange exclude themselves from the Settlement Class.

11. How do I get out of the Settlement Class and the proposed Settlement?

To exclude yourself from the Settlement Class and the Settlement, you must send a letter by First-Class Mail stating that you “request exclusion from the Settlement Class in the “Aurora Cannabis Securities Litigation.” Your letter must include your purchases and sales of Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange during the Class Period, including the dates and number of shares of Aurora common stock you purchased and sold and the price paid for each such purchase and received for each such sale. In addition, you must include your name, address, telephone number, and your signature. You must submit your exclusion request so that it is postmarked no later than January 6, 2025 to:

EXCLUSIONS
P.O. Box 91320
Seattle, WA 98111

If you ask to be excluded, you will not get any payment from the Settlement, and you cannot object to the Settlement. You will not be legally bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit, and you may be able to sue the Defendants and the other Defendants’ Released Persons about the Released Claims in the future, if such claims are not time-barred.

12. If I do not exclude myself, can I sue the Defendants and the other Defendants’ Released Persons for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up any rights you may potentially have to sue the Defendants and the other Defendants’ Released Persons for any and all Released Claims. If you have a pending lawsuit against the Defendants’ Released Persons, speak to your lawyer in that case immediately. You must exclude yourself from the Settlement Class in this Litigation to continue your own lawsuit. Remember, the exclusion deadline is January 6, 2025.

13. If I exclude myself, can I get money from the proposed Settlement?

No. If you exclude yourself, you should not send in a Proof of Claim to ask for any money. But you may have the right to potentially sue or be part of a different lawsuit against the Defendants and the other Defendants’ Released Persons.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

14. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court ordered that the law firms of Robbins Geller Rudman & Dowd LLP and Hagens Berman Sobol Shapiro LLP represent the Settlement Class Members, including you. These lawyers are called Lead Counsel. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

15. How will the lawyers be paid?

Lead Counsel will apply to the Court for an award of attorneys’ fees not to exceed 25% of the Settlement Amount and for expenses, costs, and charges in an amount not to exceed $150,000 in connection with the Litigation, plus interest on such fees and expenses at the same rate as earned by the Settlement Fund. In addition, Lead Plaintiffs may seek up to $40,000 in the aggregate for their time and expenses incurred in representing the Settlement Class. Such sums as may be approved by the Court will be paid from the Settlement Fund.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

You can tell the Court that you do not agree with the Settlement or any part of it.

16. How do I tell the Court that I object to the proposed Settlement?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can comment on or object to the proposed Settlement, the proposed Plan of Allocation, and/or Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel's fee and expense application and awards to Lead Plaintiffs. You can write to the Court setting out your comment or objection. The Court will consider your views. To comment or object, you must send a signed letter saying that you wish to comment on or object to the proposed Settlement in the Aurora Cannabis Securities Litigation. Include your name, address, telephone number, and your signature (even if you are represented by counsel), identify the date(s), price(s), and number of shares of Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange purchased or sold during the Class Period, and state with specificity your comments or the reasons why you object to the proposed Settlement, Plan of Allocation, and/or fee and expense application, including any legal and evidentiary support for such objection. Any objection must state whether it applies only to the objector, to a specific subset of the Settlement Class, or to the entire Settlement Class. In addition, the objector must identify all class action settlements to which the objector or his, her, or its counsel have previously objected. You must also include copies of documents demonstrating your purchases and/or sales of Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange during the Class Period. Your comments or objection must be filed with the Court and mailed or delivered to each of the following addresses such that it is received no later than January 6, 2025:

17. What is the difference between objecting and excluding?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class.

Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you do not want to be paid and do not want to release any claims you think you may have against Defendants and the other Released Defendant Parties. If you exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you cannot object to the Settlement because it does not affect you.

THE COURT'S SETTLEMENT HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the proposed Settlement. You may attend and you may ask to speak, but you do not have to.

18. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the proposed Settlement?

The Court will hold a Settlement Hearing at 2:00 p.m., on January 28, 2025, in the Courtroom of the Honorable James B. Clark, III, at the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, Frank R. Lautenberg Post Office & U.S. Courthouse, 2 Federal Square, Newark, NJ 07102. At the hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement and the Plan of Allocation are fair, reasonable, and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them, even if you do not ask to speak at the hearing. The Court will listen to people who have asked to speak at the hearing. The Court may also decide how much to pay to Lead Counsel and Lead Plaintiffs. At or after the Settlement Hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the Settlement and the Plan of Allocation. We do not know how long these decisions will take. You should be aware that the Court may change the date, time, and location of the Settlement Hearing without another notice being sent to Settlement Class Members.

There exists the possibility that the Court may decide to conduct the Settlement Hearing by video or telephonic conference, or otherwise allow Settlement Class Members to appear at the hearing by phone or video conference, without further written notice to the Settlement Class. In order to determine whether the date and time of the Settlement Hearing have changed, or whether Settlement Class Members (who wish to attend the hearing) must or may participate by phone or video, it is important that you monitor the Court's docket or the Settlement website, www.AuroraCannabisSecuritiesLitigation.com, before making any plans to attend the Settlement Hearing. Any updates regarding the Settlement Hearing, including any changes to the date and time of the hearing or updates regarding in-person or remote appearances at the hearing, will be posted to the Settlement website. Also, if the Court requires or allows Settlement Class Members to participate in the Settlement Hearing by telephone or video conference, the information for accessing the hearing will be posted to the Settlement website. If you want to attend the hearing, either in person or remotely, if permitted, you should check with Lead Counsel or the Settlement website beforehand to be sure that the date and/or time has not changed.

19. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Lead Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. But, you are welcome to come at your own expense. If you are a Settlement Class Member and send an objection, you do not have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you are a Settlement Class Member and mailed your complete written objection on time, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, but it is not necessary. Settlement Class Members do not need to appear at the hearing or take any other action to indicate their approval.

20. May I speak at the hearing?

If you object to the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and/or the fee and expense application, you may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Settlement Hearing. To do so, you must include with your objection (see question 16 above) a statement saying that it is your "Notice of Intention to Appear in the Aurora Cannabis Securities Litigation." Persons who intend to object to the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and/or any attorneys' fees and expenses to be awarded to Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel or Lead Plaintiffs and desire to present evidence at the Settlement Hearing must include in their written objections the identity of any witnesses they may call to testify and any exhibits they intend to introduce into evidence at the Settlement Hearing. Your notice of intention to appear must be received no later than January 6, 2025, and addressed to the Clerk of Court, Lead Counsel, and Defendants' Counsel, at the addresses listed above in question 16.

You cannot speak at the hearing if you exclude yourself from the Settlement Class.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

21. What happens if I do nothing?

If you do nothing, you will not receive any money from this Settlement. In addition, unless you exclude yourself, you will not be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendants and the other Released Defendant Parties about the Released Claims in this case.

THE PROPOSED PLAN OF ALLOCATION OF NET SETTLEMENT FUND AMONG SETTLEMENT CLASS MEMBERS

23. How will my claim be calculated?

As discussed above, the Settlement provides $8.05 million in cash for the benefit of the Settlement Class. The Settlement Amount and any interest it earns constitute the "Settlement Fund." The Settlement Fund, after deduction of Court-approved attorneys' fees and expenses, Notice and Administration Expenses, Taxes, and any other fees or expenses approved by the Court, is the "Net Settlement Fund." If the Settlement is approved by the Court, the Net Settlement Fund will be distributed to eligible Authorized Claimants – i.e., Members of the Settlement Class who timely submit valid Proofs of Claim that are accepted for payment by the Court – in accordance with this proposed Plan of Allocation ("Plan of Allocation" or "Plan") or such other plan of allocation as the Court may approve. Settlement Class Members who do not timely submit valid Proofs of Claim will not share in the Net Settlement Fund but will otherwise be bound by the Settlement. The Court may approve this proposed Plan of Allocation, or modify it, without additional notice to the Settlement Class. Any order modifying the Plan of Allocation will be posted on the Settlement website, www.AuroraCannabisSecuritiesLitigation.com.

The objective of the Plan of Allocation is to distribute the Settlement proceeds equitably among those Settlement Class Members who allegedly suffered economic losses as a proximate result of the alleged wrongdoing. The Plan of Allocation is not a formal damages analysis, and the calculations made in accordance with the Plan of Allocation are not necessarily intended to be estimates of, or indicative of, the amounts that Settlement Class Members might have been able to recover after a trial. Nor are the calculations in accordance with the Plan of Allocation intended to be estimates of the amounts that will be paid to Authorized Claimants under the Settlement.

Questions? Visit www.AuroraCannabisSecuritiesLitigation.com or call toll-free 877-495-6308

The computations under the Plan of Allocation are only a method to weigh, in a fair and equitable manner, the claims of Authorized Claimants against one another for the purpose of making pro rata allocations of the Net Settlement Fund.

The Plan of Allocation was developed in consultation with Lead Plaintiffs' damages consultant. In developing the Plan of Allocation, Lead Plaintiffs' damages consultant calculated the estimated amount of alleged artificial inflation in the per share prices of Aurora common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange that was allegedly caused by Defendants' alleged materially false and misleading statements and omissions.

As previously described in the Notice, the Net Settlement Fund is the remainder of the Settlement Fund after deduction of Court-awarded attorneys' fees and expenses, settlement administration costs, and any applicable taxes.

In calculating the estimated artificial inflation allegedly caused by the misrepresentations and omissions, Lead Plaintiffs' damages consultant considered statistically significant price changes in Aurora common stock in reaction to the public disclosures that allegedly corrected the respective alleged misrepresentations and omissions, adjusting the price changes for factors that were attributable to market or industry forces, and for non-fraud related, Aurora-specific information.

In order to have recoverable damages in connection with purchases of Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange during the Class Period, disclosure of the alleged misrepresentations or omissions must be the cause of the decline in the price of the Aurora common stock. In this case, Lead Plaintiffs allege that Defendants made false statements and omitted material facts during the period between October 23, 2018 through and including the close of trading on February 28, 2020, which had the effect of artificially inflating the prices of Aurora common stock traded on the New York Exchange. Lead Plaintiffs assert that, as the result of the alleged corrective disclosures, artificial inflation was removed from the price of Aurora stock.

In order to have a "Recognized Claim Amount" under the Plan of Allocation, shares of Aurora common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange must have been purchased during the Class Period and held through a corrective disclosure.

CALCULATION OF RECOGNIZED CLAIM AMOUNT

Based on the formulas stated below, a "Recognized Claim Amount" will be calculated for each purchase of Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange during the Class Period that is listed on the Proof of Claim and for which adequate documentation is provided. If a Recognized Claim Amount calculates to a negative number or zero under the formulas below, that Recognized Claim Amount will be zero.

For each share of Aurora common stock purchased on the New York Stock Exchange during the period between October 23, 2018 through February 28, 2020, inclusive,⁴ and:

- (a) Sold prior to September 12, 2019, the Recognized Claim Amount per share is zero;
- (b) Sold on or between September 12, 2019 through and including the close of trading on February 27, 2020, the Recognized Claim Amount will be the lesser of: (i) the inflation per share at the time of purchase less the inflation per share at the time of sale (as presented in Table A below); and (ii) the difference between the purchase price and the sale price;

⁴ For Aurora common shares purchased on February 28, 2020, the Recognized Claim Amount shall be zero.

- (c) If you retained at the end of February 27, 2020, and sold on or before May 27, 2020, the Recognized Claim Amount per share shall be the least of: (i) the inflation per share at the time of purchase (as shown in Table A below); (ii) the difference between the purchase price and the selling price; and (iii) the difference between the purchase price and the average closing price up to the date of sale as set forth in Table B below; and
- (d) Held as of the close of trading on May 27, 2020, or sold thereafter, the Recognized Claim Amount shall be the lesser of: (i) the inflation per share at the time of purchase (as shown in Table A below); or (ii) the purchase price minus $10.41, the average closing price for Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange between February 28, 2020 through May 27, 2020 (the last entry in Table B below).⁵

If a Settlement Class Member held Aurora common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange at the beginning of the Class Period or made multiple purchases or sales of Aurora common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange during or after the Class Period, the starting point for calculating a claimant’s Recognized Claim Amount is to match the claimant’s holdings and purchases to their sales using the FIFO (i.e., first-in-first-out) method. Under the FIFO method, Aurora common stock sold on the New York Stock Exchange during the Class Period will be matched, in chronological order first against Aurora common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange held at the beginning of the Class Period. The remaining sales of Aurora common stock during the Class Period will then be matched, in chronological order against Aurora common stock purchased on the New York Stock Exchange during the Class Period.

Purchases and sales of Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange shall be deemed to have occurred on the “contract” or “trade” date as opposed to the “settlement” or “payment” date. The receipt or grant by gift, inheritance, or operation of law of Aurora common stock traded on the New York Stock Exchange during the Class Period shall not be deemed a purchase or sale of Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange for the calculation of a Recognized Claim Amount, unless (i) the donor or decedent purchased such shares of Aurora common stock during the Class Period; (ii) no Proof of Claim was submitted by or on behalf of the donor, on behalf of the decedent, or by anyone else with respect to such shares of Aurora common stock; and (iii) it is specifically so provided in the instrument of gift or assignment.

An Authorized Claimant’s Recognized Claim Amount shall be the amount used to calculate the Authorized Claimant’s pro rata share of the Net Settlement Fund. If the sum total of Recognized Claim Amounts of all Authorized Claimants who are entitled to receive payment out of the Net Settlement Fund is greater than the Net Settlement Fund, each Authorized Claimant shall receive his, her, or its pro rata share of the Net Settlement Fund. The pro rata share shall be the Authorized Claimant’s Recognized Claim Amount divided by the total of the Recognized Claim Amounts of all Authorized Claimants, multiplied by the total amount in the Net Settlement Fund. Given the costs of distribution, the Net Settlement Fund will be allocated among all Authorized Claimants whose Recognized Claim Amount is $10.00 or greater.

If a claimant had a market gain with respect to their overall transactions in Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange during the Class Period, the value of the claimant’s Recognized Claim Amount will be zero. If a claimant suffered an overall market loss with respect to their overall transactions in Aurora common stock on the New York Stock Exchange during the Class Period but that market loss was less than the claimant’s total Recognized Claim Amount calculated above, then the claimant’s Recognized Claim Amount will be limited to the amount of the actual market loss.

Distributions will be made to Authorized Claimants after all claims have been processed, after the Court has finally approved the Settlement, and after any appeals are resolved. If there is any balance remaining in the Net Settlement Fund after at least six (6) months from the initial date of distribution of the Net Settlement Fund (whether by reason of tax refunds, uncashed checks, or otherwise), the Claims Administrator shall, if feasible, reallocate such balance among Authorized Claimants in an equitable and economic fashion. These redistributions shall be repeated until the balance remaining in the Net Settlement Fund is no longer economically feasible to distribute to Settlement Class Members. Thereafter, any balance that still remains in the Net Settlement Fund shall be donated to an appropriate non-sectarian, non-profit charitable organization(s) serving the public interest.

Please contact the Claims Administrator or Lead Counsel if you disagree with any determinations made by the Claims Administrator regarding your Proof of Claim. If you are dissatisfied with the determinations, you may ask the Court, which retains jurisdiction over all Settlement Class Members and the claims administration process, to decide the issue by submitting a written request for review.

The Court has reserved jurisdiction to allow, disallow, or adjust the claim of any Settlement Class Member on equitable grounds.

Payment pursuant to the Plan of Allocation set forth above shall be conclusive against all Authorized Claimants. Defendants, their respective counsel, and all other Defendants' Released Persons will have no responsibility or liability whatsoever for the investment of the Settlement Fund, the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund, the Plan of Allocation, or the payment of any claim. No Person shall have any claim against Lead Plaintiffs, Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel, the Claims Administrator, or other Person designated by Lead Plaintiffs' Counsel, Defendants, or Defendants' Counsel based on distributions made substantially in accordance with the Stipulation and the Settlement contained therein, the Plan of Allocation, or further orders of the Court.
